1. What did you think was done well during this meeting?
  - I thought that the lunch was handled very well.
  - Staff people were great.
  - Worship; equipping time; lunch was great.
  - Like the discussion will be interested to hear the results of the other groups.
  - Worship service; activity “Equipping for Ministry”.
  - The worship service and the sermon message! Intro by host pastor – more informative about the church, etc. Opportunity for conversations on missions. The over-all “class” of the whole meeting.
  - The organization from last Presbytery feeding into this meeting. Of course the lunch. I like what the presbytery is doing to move forward.
  - Worship; discussion time and mission; lunch; meeting space; celebrating of service to the Church/Presbytery.
  - All presentations were excellently presented!!!
  - Worship was wonderful.
  - Everything.
  - The music during worship was amazing! Thank you to Ms. Kathryn Dubovsky. The round table workshop under Ms. Carol McDonald was very relaxed and effective.
  - Morning breakout session discussion.
  - Great sermon; What Are We Called to Do? by Rev. Carol McDonald; great lunch.
  - The equipping session was very well done.

2. What would you suggest for upcoming meetings?
  - I would suggest not having a farewell party for a staff member prior to voting on the changes. What if motion failed?
  - Continued discussions. Well appreciated. Personnel report felt unclear on staff issues.
  - Development of the 2017 themes – the Reformation; John Calvin, Celebration of the Presbyterians polity and its meaning. Did the presbytery meeting answer the question of “What Calls Us To Unity?”
  - Guest speakers regarding: Ministry in Transition; Leadership Development; Healthy Family Systems regarding Congregations.
  - Continue the good work in the presbytery way!!
  - Keep up the good work.
  - The same welcoming warmth we received from everyone at Flushing Presbyterian today!
  - Could you give us information about writing checks for the offering?
  - More best practice change; creative ministry on outreach.
  - The equipping session was very well done.
