1. What did you think was done well during this meeting?
  - Worship; equipping time.
  - 1. Location was excellent, building is bright, cheerful, accessible, beautifully decorated. 2. Lunch was excellent! 3. I loved singing the doxology. 4. Group from Emmaus House was very moving and heartfelt!
  - Rev. Dr. Rhashell Hunter, Dr. Susan Jackson-Dowd presentation – great. Loved Elder Johanna Jozwiak’s presentation – learned about; worship service.
  - Program very good, but not fair to luncheon committee by running over.
  - Emmaus House was great. More of this. William Rayment was excellent and it’s important work.
  - I thoroughly enjoyed the Rev. Dr. Rhashell Hunter’s presentation! Language is an important part of racial issues.
  - Rev. Dr. Rhashell Hunter was outstanding and eye opening. These meetings always feed me. Thanks!!
  - The equipping for ministry was very timely and provided both information and presented food for thought.
  - Worship. Good equipping for ministry session.
  - There is almost at every meeting some thought and spirit provoking issue that is brought up. Today’s was very good.
  - Food. Discussion/program. Liked hearing more about offering recipients.

2. What would you suggest for upcoming meetings?
  - Trustees – made a motion that was too complex and important to just spring on the Presbytery.
  - Sing some old favorite hymns!
  - Less moving around. More time spent on practical ideas/solutions. Shorter worship time. More work of Presbytery spread throughout the day.
  - Much shorter video presentations to be done after the meeting.
  - Try to stress to any presenter to keep it at a reasonable time. I felt the Palestine presentation took way too long for a Presbytery meeting.
