1. What did you think was done well during this meeting?

- Worship; equipping piece with The Rev. David Gambrell.
- Worship; arrangements; presentation; vision; mission.
- Worship and 3 presentations on Directory of Worship, Board of Pensions, Presbytery Vision Task Force.
- Continuing education/training; use of time.
- Worship – fabulous.
- Everything was well done – especially appreciated worship.
- The worship service was wonderful. Lunch was great.
- Worship was awesome; food excellent; presentations were excellent; keep up with the good job.
- Worship service!!! The Rev. David Gambrell's presentation on worship.
- Wonderful worship service; great information from Board of Pensions; long but informative on Book of Order amendments.
- First meeting – didn't know what to expect.
- For a first time commissioner elder, I was able to follow along ok.
- The worship service was great. Using the Directory for Worship was very informative.
- Worship – inspiring, amazing, loved it! Directory for Worship information – great; Board of Pensions Report – really helpful and informative.
- Worship service – wonderful!
- Worship was wonderful. Lunch was great.
- Worship was very upbeat and inspiring; lunch was delicious; bogged down with amendments.
- Explanation of amendments.
- I really enjoyed the presentation by the Rev. David Gambrell on the Directory for Worship.
- Worship was beautiful and meaningful. Lunch was awesome.
- This has been a wonderful experience. Sermon, music, lunch. It is refreshing that as a presbytery we are moving forward.
- Worship! Totally outside the Presbyterian box. However, turning sideways and straining to see and read the visuals during the Rev. David Gambrell's presentation was uncomfortable. C-c-cold in sanctuary.
- The Rev. Joseph Novak's message! Meeting areas very nice! Comfortable - well signed – pleasant people.
- Bylaw change; worship experience.
- Directory of Worship presentation; worship service.
- It was very helpful when voting on so many different and many times confusing items, when the Rev. Dr. Dan Saperstein stood and gave his summary and recommendation of such items.
- Meal.

- Amazing worship – “teaching” bulletin great. Directory of Worship information helpful and Board of Pensions information; wonderful leadership on amendments – the Rev. Dr. Dan Saperstein and the Rev. Ted McCulloch are great.

2. What would you suggest for upcoming meetings?

- Continue the deliberate and purposeful inclusion of staff from national church!
- That at least a part of the Stewardship focus at the June presbytery meeting be on the Stewardship of Creation.
- Maybe structure the mealtime to foster ministerial relationships? No real complaints.
- Please have standing breaks during long “sitting business times”!
- Since this is my first time, I am not sure.
- None
- I would advise that you alert participating pastor advise their attending commissioner what they need to have knowledge of when attending.
- No suggestions.
- Could you post the Rev. David Gambrell’s notes on the Presbytery’s web site?
- If you have the Board of Pensions, we need a hand-out with web sites and congregational action items, with time lines. Actually, this is nice for any in depth presentation.
- Use the same caterer as today – food was excellent.
- Lunch at noon.
- Content related to mission and vision.
- N/A.
- Conversations during the meeting should be taken outside the room where the meeting is being held. It was hard to hear sometimes.
